Re: United States v. Tanisha LaPlant, 16 Cr. 799 (VLB)

Dear Judge Briccetti:

On August 12, 2019, the U.S. Probation Office filed a Violation of Supervised Release Report (the "VOSR Report") in the above-referenced matter. On July 23, 2020, the Court postponed violation proceedings and extended the defendant's supervised release by a period of six months. The period of supervised release is scheduled to terminate on February 8, 2021.

Probation has informed the Government that the defendant has been in compliance with the conditions of supervised release, and that it recommends dismissal of all specifications at this time. Accordingly, on Probation's recommendation, the Government moves to dismiss the specifications set forth in the VOSR Report.

APPLICATION GRANTED
SO ORDERED:

Vincent L. Briccetti, U.S.D.J.
